BATEMAN OBSEQUES LARGELY ATTENDED

Hundreds of friends assembled yesterday afternoon at the bier of the late Bryden M. Bateman to pay evocative tribute to one whom they had known and admired during this life. It was a compliment worthily bestowed upon a man who had gained the confidence of the entire community, and whose departure was sorely regretted. The services were held from the Elks home, of which order deceased had long been a devoted member, and were under the auspices of lodge No. 25, Knights of Pythias. The floral offerings were most profuse which stood as mute evidence in which deceased had been held. The lodge room was filled with regretful friends, and following the ritual of the Knights of Pythias, prayers were offered by the Rev. Frank Manderon of the Presbyterian church.

A large cortege followed the remains to the local cemetery, where, amid impressive ceremonies, they were laid to rest. The pallbearers were C. D. Zoigler, Charles G. Aske, Frank Hill, Mark H. Page, W. D. Hutton and W. F. Gray.

WELFARE LEAGUE MAKES MATTERS PURELY PLAIN

Says Much Good Has Been Accomplished and Organization is for Benefit of All

To the Tonopah Public:—The Welfare league of Tonopah is desirous of placing itself in the right light before the public. We feel that a great deal of good has already been accomplished by the league and that more good can be accomplished in the future. Important matters are coming up from time to time that demand concerted action on behalf of the community. We apprehend that considerable misunderstanding exists as to the actions of the league in the recent labor difficulties. In order to dispel such misunderstanding this statement is made. Since the commencement of the organization, an effort has been made by its executive committee to conciliate differences and promote the welfare of the district without fear or favor for any particular element of the community. On Monday morning, Oct. 16, before the meeting of the operators and miners' committee, the undersigned president of the Welfare league together with W. D. Hutton, the secretary, and Wm. Forman, a member of the executive committee, met together in conference as to the best means to avert a deadlock and prolonged strife in the district. As a result of this conference a communication was drafted for delivery to the mine operators. We were informed at that time that the operators and miners were about to meet, and we therefore immediately sent the communication to Mr. Kirchen, the president of the Mine Operators association. The communication referred to is as follows:—

"We, the committee appointed by the Tonopah Welfare league to act as an intermediary between the operators of Tonopah and Divide mining districts and the miners of these districts, and having at heart the welfare, peace and prosperity of this community, do respectfully offer our services as such intermediary with a view of bringing harmony between employer and employees in these districts. Periodical strife and lack of harmony between the operators and employees have in the past entailed hardship upon all of our citizens and particularly upon the working men who are heads of families. The miners have made a demand for an increase of 75c per day and the operators have conceded an increase to all employees of 25c per day, so long as silver shall remain at $1 per ounce. It is evident to all that the miner is entitled to a greater increase in his wages, owing to the conditions under which he works, the character of the service rendered and the hazard of his employment. A deadlock at the present time appears to exist between the employers and employees due to the question of wages. We would therefore suggest that an increase of 50c per day be made to them by the operators, believing that by so doing that the employers will receive an adequate return from such increase and the employees will feel they are getting a just compensation for their labor."

After the meeting of the operators and miners, it was learned that an adjustment had been virtually arrived at along the lines proposed by our committee.

The Tonopah Welfare league expects to continue in its efforts to serve the community. A vacancy on the executive committee of the league was filled recently by the election of St. Clair Wood, who is a well known representative miner of the district. The league is now negotiating for a lease for a term of four years for two nights each month on the new Pythian auditorium. This will guarantee to the Pythians the remaining funds necessary to complete their building and will furnish a meeting place where the Welfare league can conduct its meetings both for business and pleasure and thus promote the

SENATOR ODDIE EXPLAINS WHY HE CAMPAIGNED

Went to Washington to Help Senator Poindexter, Real Friend of Nevada

"Much has been said and written why I made a trip to the state of Washington to deliver a few speeches during this campaign," remarked Senator Tasker L. Oddie, previous to his departure for Fallon yesterday morning. "I went there at the request of the republican national committee to endeavor in assisting with the return of Senator Poindexter to congress. I was gone a week and I believe I did him some good. Senator Poindexter, by the way, has proved himself a true friend of Nevada which owes him a great debt of gratitude because of the fine advice that he has and is making to eliminate the back haul charge which has held back the development of our state for so many years at so great a loss to the people. Senator Poindexter's efforts should be read and studied very carefully by Nevadans. There will be found in his report he made for the interstate commerce commission of the United States senate, which is considered a masterpiece on railroad legislative matters, an interesting matter."
